Senator Hilburn moved that the motion made by Senator Getzen be laid on the table.

Which was agreed to.

And it was so ordered.

By permission the following Resolution was introduced:

By Senators Gomez and Hodges—

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 19:

WHEREAS, only a few days remain before the final adjournment of this Legislature; and

WHEREAS, the major problems of the State are yet to be solved and the credit of this commonwealth and the people thereof demand and have every reason to expect substantial relief at our hands; and

WHEREAS, by proper direction and definite plans of legislation previously agreed upon and due preparation made in accordance therewith; and

WHEREAS, it is the sense of this Legislature to truly serve the people in a manner free from sectionalism and personalities and enact into law such legislation as will restore the credit of this State and the confidence of the public;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate and the House of Representatives concurring that a committee of nine be appointed by the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House to be composed of four from the Senate and five from the House of Representatives for the purposes hereinafter set forth, to-wit:

1. To draft suitable bills to be presented simultaneously to both branches of the Legislature, in the event a special session may be called, covering the following subjects, that is to say:

(a) Ascertainment of the actual requirements of the State Government and legislation to meet the same upon a ten (10%) to twenty (20%) per cent less than suggested by budgets heretofore prepared, consistent with efficiency in all departments of the State.

(b) A reduction of salaries and commissions, as the case may be, of all State officials from ten (10) to twenty (20) per cent upon a reasonable and graduated basis.

(c) Limiting all County officials to a net income, whether by salary or commission, not to exceed seventy-five hundred ($7500.00) dollars per year, nor less than twenty-five hundred ($2500.00) dollars upon a graduated scale, according to population.

(d) Eliminating the State ad valorem tax except the one mill provided by the constitution.

(e) Provide new sources of revenue, but only as may be necessary, to give to the State sufficient funds so as to make possible the elimination of the State ad valorem tax and materially reduce the county millage.

(f) Consolidation of county tax collectors and county tax assessors upon a uniform basis throughout the State.

(g) The adoption of a five-year installment delinquent tax plan whereby the delinquent properties may be put back upon the tax rolls and the individual allowed an opportunity over a period of years to adjust his indebtedness to the government, including cities, counties and State.

(h) A Tax Commission carrying with it a reasonable appropriation for clerical purposes, making the Chief Executive Ex Officio thereof.

(i) Reallocation of gas tax.

2. Said committee to faithfully work and cooperate with the Chief Executive and all departments of government with a view of accomplishing a uniformity of purpose and cooperation to the end that the various matters of legislation herein suggested may be incorporated into law as speedily as may be convenient.

3. That such committee be allowed a period of ten (10) days, unless more time is required within which to accomplish the purposes and preparation of the bills necessary to cover the subjects herein pointed out and report back to a joint session of the Senate and House of Representatives to be convened informally, upon notice and at such time adopt or reject, add to or take from the work of this committee with the view of discharging the weighty responsibilities resting upon us at this time and in the immediate future.

4. To pass no legislation of a local or general character other than the program adopted by this resolution except on a two-thirds vote of either branch of the legislature.

5. That such committee invite nine (9) of the leading citizens of the State of Florida who in their judgment could and would assist in the solving of the problems of government to advise and work with this committee in the fulfillment of the purposes herein incorporated, and that all necessary expenses be paid by this legislature incident to the complete carrying out of the requirements of this resolution.

Which was read the first time.

Senator Bell moved that the rules be waived and Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 22 be indefinitely postponed.

Upon which a roll call was demanded.

Upon the adoption of the motion made by Senator Bell the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President; Senators Adams, Andrews, Bell, Butler, Chowning, Clarke, Council, English, Futch, Harris, Hinely, Howell, Irby, Lewis, Parrish, Swearingen, Taylor, Turner, Wagg—20.

Nays—Senators Anderson, Bradshaw, Caro, Dell, Gary, Gomez, Harrison, Hodges, King, Knabb, Neel, Watson, Young—13.

Which was not agreed to.

And Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 22 went over under the rule.

Senator King moved that the rules be waived and the Senate

do now take up the consideration of Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 611 out of its order.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And—

Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 611:

A bill to be entitled An Act for the relief of certain county officers, their heirs, representatives and sureties.

Which was read a third time in full on May 29, 1931, retaining its place on the Calendar of Bills on third reading, was taken up.

By unanimous consent Senator King offered the following amendment to Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 611:

In Section 2, line 2 (printed bill) after the word "repealed" add "excepting it is hereby provided that nothing in this Act shall be construed or held to relieve any County Officer from the consequence of any fraud practiced by him in connection with making his reports and accounting for fees as required by law."

Senator King moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to.

And the amendment was adopted.

Senator King moved that the rules be waived and the hour of recess be extended 5 minutes.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And it was so ordered.

The question then recurred on the passage of the bill.

Upon the passage of the bill the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President; Senators Adams, Anderson, Bradshaw, Caro, Chowning, Clarke, Council, Futch, Gomez, Harris, Harrison, Hodges, Irby, Johns, King, Lewis, Taylor, Turner, Wagg, Watson, Young—22.

Nays—Senators Andrews, Bell, Butler, Dell, English, Gary, Hilburn, Hinely, Howell, Knabb, Neel, Parker, Parrish, Swearingen—14.

So Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 611 passed, as amended, title as stated.

And the same was ordered to be referred to the Committee on Engrossed Bills.

Senator Turner moved that the rules be waived and the Senate do now take up the consideration of Messages from the House of Representatives.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And it was so ordered.

Senator Caro moved that the rules be waived and the hour of recess be further extended until the completion of the consideration of Messages from the House of Representatives.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And it was so ordered.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And it was so ordered.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

In voting to indefinitely postpone House Bill No. 1389, I do so because I believe the bill to be unconstitutional, unfair and inequitable, in that it attempts to impose and levy special assessments upon lands within a special taxing district retroactively for improvements previously constructed and which in my opinion should be imposed and levied upon all the lands in said district.
